

SEA MEMBERSHIP

(Savings & Efficiency Agreement)

STANDARD Safety Inspection	PLUS Heating & Air Conditioning System Tune-up	PREMIUM SEA Agreements (Savings & Efficiency)
<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Discuss thermostat programming with client2. Check all safety and fan limit control and switches3. Check wiring connections and blower motor4. Check, record, and analyze indoor blower motor amp draw5. Check air temperature difference between supply and return6. Check wiring for loose connections7. Check condition of heat strips8. Check indoor coil and drain pan, advise of condition9. Test electrical relays10. Check, record, and analyze condenser fan motor amps11. Test compressor starter components12. Check compressor amp draw	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Discuss thermostat programming with client2. Check all safety and fan limit control and switches3. Check wiring connections and blower motor4. Clean blower motor compartment as needed5. Check, record, and analyze indoor blower motor amp draw6. Inspect ducting in attic for air leakage and restrictions7. Check air temperature difference between supply and return8. Check defrost cycle and reversing valve operation9. Check wiring for loose connections10. Check condition of heat strips11. Check indoor coil and drain pan, advise of condition12. Test electrical relays13. Check, record, and analyze condenser fan motor amps14. Test compressor starter components15. Check and record refrigerant pressures16. Check compressor amp draw17. Inspect refrigerant tubing and coils for leaks18. Check condenser coil/inspect bottom of outdoor unit19. Replace standard filter (customer supplied)20. Clean condenser coil	BEST VALUE Regular maintenance is one of the most cost-effective ways to maintain comfort, increase efficiency (saving you money on your utilities), and help ensure your system(s) are in optimal working order. Our technicians are professionally trained to identify potential problems before they become big ones and to recommend ways to improve efficiency and comfort. In addition to everything from the Standard and Plus memberships, SEA Agreements will ALSO receive the following ADDED BENEFITS: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. A/C tune-up includes complimentary pan treatment (retail $110)2. Free performance report with each tune-up3. Priority service (front-of-the-line access)4. Same day replacement on parts*5. Longer equipment life6. Increased comfort and efficiency7. $49 service fee (savings of $20)8. 15% savings on repairs (parts & labor) *Excludes special order parts not stocked on our service trucks